ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On January 14, 2013, News Corporation (the “Company”) announced it has reached an agreement with Sky Deutschland AG (“Sky Deutschland”) and its new bank syndicate to support both a new financing structure and the issuance of €438 million of new equity.

The new bank financing, which will be guaranteed by the Company, will replace Sky Deutschland’s current bank debt facilities. Additionally, the Company will guarantee certain rights payments associated with Sky Deutschland’s Bundesliga broadcasting license and support the raising of additional funds of €438 million (which includes the outstanding €144 million of equity under the capital measures announced by Sky Deutschland on February 2, 2012) to support Sky Deutschland on the continuing execution of its strategy.

Under the new financing structure, Sky Deutschland’s existing bank debt facilities will be repaid in full and be replaced by a new €300 million five-year bank credit facility. The Company has committed to provide a guarantee to Sky Deutschland’s lending banks and to act as guarantor to the German Football League (DFL) for Sky Deutschland’s new Bundesliga broadcasting license for the 2013/14 to 2016/17 seasons in an amount of up to 50% of the license fee per season. In addition, the Company has agreed to extend the maturity of existing shareholder loans of €106 million plus accrued interest.

The €438 million of new equity includes a private placement on January 14, 2013 of 77.9 million new registered shares in Sky Deutschland issued to the Company at a price of €4.46 per new share for an aggregate price of €347.4 million. On registration, the Company’s stake in Sky Deutschland will increase from 49.9% to 54.5%.

The remaining funds of €90.6 million to reach an aggregate of €438 million are expected to be raised by Sky Deutschland through a rights offering of new registered shares to be offered to Sky Deutschland shareholders. In order to ensure that the overall proceeds to Sky Deutschland amount to €438 million, the Company will provide a loan if the rights offering is not fully subscribed. The Company has committed to fully exercise its subscription rights, including those that will result from the private placement described above, and has the right to subscribe in whole or in part for any new shares that are not subscribed for by other Sky Deutschland shareholders.

As a result of this transaction Sky Deutschland will become a consolidated entity of the Company.

The Company’s commitments are subject to certain conditions, in particular but not limited to: the new credit facility is and remains in full force and effect, no material adverse change has occurred in the financial and business development of Sky Deutschland, and other customary conditions. The Company may waive the requirement to comply with individual conditions.

A copy of the Company’s press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

News Corporation, Sky Deutschland AG and its new Bank Syndicate reach agreement on financing measures

New York, January 14, 2013 – News Corporation today announced it has reached an agreement with Sky Deutschland AG (“Sky Deutschland”) and its new bank syndicate to support both a new financing structure and the issuance of €438 million of new equity.

The new bank financing, which will be guaranteed by News Corporation, will replace Sky Deutschland’s current bank debt facilities. Additionally, News Corporation will guarantee certain rights payments associated with Sky Deutschland’s Bundesliga broadcasting license and support the raising of additional funds of €438 million (which includes the outstanding €144 million of equity under the capital measures announced by Sky Deutschland on February 2, 2012) to support Sky Deutschland on the continuing execution of its strategy.

“We have always believed in Sky Deutschland’s ability to transform the pay TV experience in Germany and Austria and this new financing structure further validates that longstanding commitment,” said Chase Carey, President and Chief Operating Officer, News Corporation. “News Corporation’s continued investment underscores the value we see in Sky Deutschland and the significant market opportunities it faces, and reflects our confidence in its management team and their strategies for growth.”

Under the new financing structure, Sky Deutschland’s existing bank debt facilities will be repaid in full and be replaced by a new €300 million five-year bank credit facility. News Corporation has committed to provide a guarantee to Sky Deutschland’s lending banks and to act as guarantor to the German Football League (DFL) for Sky Deutschland’s new Bundesliga broadcasting license for the 2013/14 to 2016/17 seasons in an amount of up to 50 percent of the license fee per season. In addition, News Corporation has agreed to extend the maturity of existing shareholder loans of €106 million plus accrued interest.

The €438 million of new equity includes a private placement today of 77.9 million new registered shares in Sky Deutschland issued to News Corporation at a price of €4.46 per new share for an aggregate price of €347.4 million. On registration, News Corporation’s stake in Sky Deutschland will increase from 49.9 percent to 54.5 percent.

The remaining funds of €90.6 million to reach an aggregate of €438 million are expected to be raised by Sky Deutschland through a rights offering of new registered shares to be offered to Sky Deutschland shareholders. In order to ensure that the overall proceeds to Sky Deutschland amount to €438 million, News Corporation will provide a loan if the rights offering is not fully subscribed. News Corporation has committed to fully exercise its subscription rights, including those that will result from today’s private placement, and has the right to subscribe in whole or in part for any new shares that are not subscribed for by other Sky Deutschland shareholders.

As a result of this transaction Sky Deutschland will become a consolidated entity of News Corporation.

News Corporation's commitments are subject to certain conditions, in particular but not limited to: the new credit facility is and remains in full force and effect, no material adverse change has occurred in the financial and business development of Sky Deutschland, and other customary conditions. News Corporation may waive the requirement to comply with individual conditions.

Deutsche Bank is acting as financial advisor to News Corporation in this transaction.
