Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some or all of the Notes must be Converted immediately following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event • In each case the Scheduled Conversion Conditions will not apply and the number of Ordinary Shares that Holders will receive will be limited to the Maximum Conversion Number • The proportion of the Notes that will be Converted in these circumstances may be determined by APRA (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) or be dependent on restoration of Westpac's Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio to above 5.125% (on a Level 1 or Level 2 basis) (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event)
Termination of Holder's rights if Conversion does not occur	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If Conversion is not possible¹ and Westpac is not able to issue the Ordinary Shares within 5 Business Days following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, then the Holder's rights in relation to those Notes (including to Distributions) are terminated, the investment will lose all of its value and Holders will not receive any compensation

¹ For example, due to applicable laws, order of a court or action of any government authority.

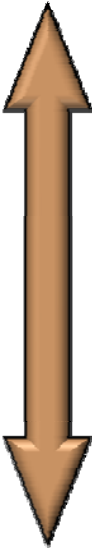

Westpac's Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio

- Effective from 1 January 2013, the Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is determined under APRA's new Basel III capital adequacy standards
- As of 30 September 2012, Westpac's Basel III Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio was 8.16% (on a Level 2 basis)
 - Considerably above the Capital Trigger Event Level of 5.125% and equivalent to a surplus of over $9.3bn
- Surplus above 5.125% is also strong on a Level 1 basis. As of 30 September 2012, Westpac's Basel III Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio was 8.15% (on a Level 1 basis)
- Under Basel III, Westpac's preferred range for its Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is 8.0% to 8.5% (on a Level 2 basis), which reflects Westpac's desire to remain well capitalised
- This preferred range takes into consideration:
 - Regulatory minimums and capital conservation buffers
 - Stress testing to maintain an appropriate capital ratio in a downturn
 - Quarterly volatility of capital ratios under Basel III from dividend payments

Subordination and ranking of Westpac Capital Notes

- In a Winding Up of Westpac, Westpac Capital Notes (if they are on issue at the time) rank for payment:
 - ahead of Ordinary Shares
 - equally with Equal Ranking Capital Securities (which currently include TPS 2003, TPS 2004, Westpac TPS, Westpac SPS, Westpac SPS II and Westpac CPS)
 - behind claims of Senior Creditors (including depositors of Westpac and all holders of Westpac’s senior or less subordinated debt)

Key risks of Westpac Capital Notes

- In the unlikely event of a Winding Up, if the Notes are still on issue they will rank ahead of Ordinary Shares, equally with all Equal Ranking Capital Securities and behind Senior Creditors.
- If there is a shortfall of funds on a Winding Up to pay all amounts ranking senior to and equally with Notes, Holders will lose all or some of their investment.
- It is possible that the Notes may trade at a market price below Face Value.
- Circumstances in which the market price of the Notes may decline include general financial market conditions, changes in investor perception and sentiment in relation to Westpac and the availability of better rates of return on other securities issued by Westpac or other issuers.
- The market for the Notes may be less liquid than the market for Ordinary Shares.
- Holders who wish to sell their Notes may be unable to do so at an acceptable price, or at all, if insufficient liquidity exists in the market for the Notes.
- There is a risk that Distributions will not be paid. Distributions are discretionary and are only payable subject to the satisfaction of the Distribution Payment Conditions.
- Distributions are non-cumulative. If a Distribution is not paid in full because the Distribution Payment Conditions are not satisfied, Holders are not entitled to receive the unpaid portion of that Distribution.
- The Distribution Rate will fluctuate (and may increase and/or decrease) over time with movements in the 90 day Bank Bill Rate.
- There is a risk that the rate may become less attractive compared to returns available on comparable securities or investments.
- The value of Ordinary Shares received for each Note that is Converted upon the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event may be less than the Face Value of each Note.
- If for any reason Conversion of Notes is not possible following the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (for example, due to applicable laws, order of a court or action of any government authority), all rights (including to Distributions) in respect of those Notes will be terminated. Your investment will lose all of its value and you will not receive any compensation.
- Investments in the Notes may be affected by the ongoing performance and financial position of Westpac.
- The price used to calculate the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion may be different to the market price of Ordinary Shares at the time of Conversion.
- Conversion may not occur on 8 March 2021, being the first possible Scheduled Conversion Date, or at all.
- Conversion, Redemption or Transfer may occur in certain circumstances before the Scheduled Conversion Date, which may be disadvantageous in light of market conditions or your individual circumstances.
- As the Notes are perpetual instruments and have no fixed maturity date, there is a risk you may not be repaid your capital.
- Westpac may issue further securities which rank equally with or ahead of the Notes.

This is a summary of the key risks only. You should read Section 5 “Investment Risks” of the Prospectus in full before deciding to invest (including “Investment Risks Relating to Westpac”).

Certain statements contained in this presentation may constitute statements about “future matters” for the purposes of section 728(2) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and/or “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the US Securities Act. The forward-looking statements include statements regarding our intent, belief or current expectations with respect to our business and operations, market conditions, results of operations and financial condition, including, without limitation, future loan loss provisions, financial support to certain borrowers, indicative drivers, forecasted economic indicators and performance metric outcomes.

We use words such as ‘will’, ‘may’, ‘expect’, ‘indicative’, ‘intend’, ‘seek’, ‘would’, ‘should’, ‘could’, ‘continue’, ‘plan’, ‘probability’, ‘risk’, ‘forecast’, ‘likely’, ‘estimate’, ‘anticipate’, ‘believe’, or similar words to identify forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are subject to change, certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions which are, in many instances, beyond our control and have been made based upon management’s expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effect upon us. Should one or more of the risks or uncertainties materialise, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from the expectations described in this presentation. Factors that may impact on the forward-looking statements made include those described in section 5 of the Prospectus entitled “Investment Risks” and in the section entitled “Risk and risk management” in Westpac’s Annual Report for the fiscal year ended 30 September 2012. When relying on forward-looking statements to make decisions with respect to Westpac, investors and others should carefully consider such factors and other uncertainties and events. We are under no obligation, and do not intend, to update any forward-looking statements contained in this presentation.
