

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Wednesday 30th January 2013

Queensland Legal Proceedings

Cougar Energy Limited (ASX:CXY) advises that its confidential “without prejudice” communications are still continuing with the Queensland Government to resolve each of the Queensland Supreme Court proceedings (the damages claim) and the Queensland Planning & Environment Court proceedings (challenging the government department’s requirements with respect to the Kingaroy site).

Cougar Energy advises that the previous court timetable in the damages claim (Supreme Court proceedings) has been extended until 22 February 2013 to accommodate this.

Cougar Energy will make a further announcement to the market following the outcome of these communications.

Rob Neill
CEO and Managing Director