2 April 2012

Dear Extract Shareholder

Compulsory acquisition of Extract Resources Limited shares

As you may know, the takeover offer (Offer) by Taurus Mineral Limited (Taurus) to acquire all of your ordinary shares in Extract Resources Limited (Extract) is scheduled to close at 7.00pm (Sydney, Australia time) on 2 April 2012, unless extended.

Taurus has become entitled under section 661A(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) to compulsorily acquire all of the Extract shares in which it does not already have a relevant interest, having acquired a relevant interest in more than 90% (by number) of all Extract shares as at 28 March 2012 (including the approximate 42.6% held by Kalahari Minerals plc), and having acquired at least 75% (by number) of the Extract shares that Taurus offered to acquire under the Offer (excluding any Extract shares in which Taurus or its associates had a relevant interest at the date its Offer was first made). Taurus has decided to exercise its right to compulsory acquisition.

This letter is being sent to you because you are currently registered as the holder of Extract shares. This likely means that you either have not accepted the Offer, or that your acceptance was not valid (for example, because it was not in accordance with the terms of the Offer), or your acceptance has not yet resulted in Taurus being registered as the holder of your Extract shares. If you have already validly accepted the Offer, or do so before its close, you may ignore this letter and the attached notice.

Please find enclosed an ASIC Form 6021: Notice of compulsory acquisition following takeover bid (Notice), which Taurus is required to give you under the Corporations Act to exercise its right to compulsory acquisition.

Taurus will pay A$8.65 for each Extract share that it compulsorily acquires, which is the same price per share that was offered to all Extract shareholders under the Offer. Taurus is required to pay to Extract the total cash payable for the compulsory acquisition of Extract shares within the time required under the Corporations Act (approximately 1 month to 6 weeks after the date of this letter, although this period may be longer in some cases).

You do not need to sign or return the Notice. In due course, Extract will send to remaining holders of Extract shares a written notice seeking instructions on how to deal with the cash payable to the holder. Extract will also be required to hold the cash paid to it by Taurus in trust for holders of Extract shares which are being compulsorily acquired.

If you have any questions about this letter or the enclosed Notice, or the compulsory acquisition procedure generally, you may call the Offer Information Line on 1300 556 287 (toll free within Australia) or +61 3 9415 4357 (for overseas shareholders).

Yours faithfully,

Zuyuan He
Director
Taurus Mineral Limited
